Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4, 9-15, and 20-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Slepian ((5729917)).

Slepian shows an article of footwear comprising an outsole (12), a midsole and upper (shown in figure 1), a cushion device (14), a cage (20) having a base (26), ribs (54), and a reinforcing rib (28) as claimed.

3. Claims 1-5, 7, 9-16, 18, and 20-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Edington (5220737).

Edington shows an article of footwear comprising an outsole (14), a midsole (12), an upper (16), a cushion device (38), a cage (50) having a base (56), spaced ribs (58 and 60), a reinforcing rib/gusset (shown at the connecting area of the ribs to the base or as shown in figure 5 there are reinforcing ribs on the bottom of the base some of which connect the ribs together) as claimed.

4. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Whatley (5279051)

Whatley shows an article of footwear comprising an outsole (14), midsole/cushion (16), upper (12), and a cage formed with a base, plurality of ribs, reinforcing ribs, gussets, etc. (many different embodiments are shown in the figures which comprise bases (such as elements 30, 112, or 132) , ribs (side portions shown in the drawings), gussets (the lower areas of the sides), reinforcing rib (shown as top element 20, top portions shown in figures 4A-4F) as claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 23-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Whatley in view of Rudy (4219945).

Whatley shows an article of footwear substantially as claimed except for a bladder. Rudy teaches providing a bladder (10) in a midsole (19). It would have been obvious to provide a bladder as taught by Rudy in the midsole in the article of footwear of Whatley to increase comfort and support.

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-31 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-19 of U. S. Patent No. 6,665,958 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: both claim a shoe sole with a cushion device surrounded by a cage having a plurality of spaced support elements, base, and reinforcing rim in a midsole area.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See MPEP § 804.

7. Telephone inquiries regarding the status of application or other general questions, by persons entitled to the information, "should be directed to the group clerical personnel and not to the Examiners. In as much as the official records and applications are located in the clerical section of the examining groups, the clerical personnel can readily provide status information without contacting the examiners", M.P.E.P. 203.08. The Group clerical receptionist number is (703) 308-1148 or the Tech Center 3700 Customer Service Center number is (703) 306-5648. For applicant's convenience, the Group Technological Center FAX number is (703) 872-9306.
